Dear Friends and Supporters:

October in Sicily is a month of lots of activities all over, it is grape season and soon after the olive season starts. At this moment the roads are busy with farming tractors with trailers hauling olives to the presses . Giuseppe's family also will do olive harvest in November at their farm , hoping for nice weather.

We were blessed this month with the arrival of few volunteers eager to serve alongside of us. Lisa from Germany stayed one month helping with the sorting of clothes in the warehouse. Kayla soon arrived to help with bible studies and help in the warehouse also. They really liked the opportunity to work alongside some of the Sicilian believers and trying to connect with them with some Italian words mixed with German and American language, you can imagine the silliness sometime. Once an a while we have a get together at the farmhouse and always we have lots of guests, this time we did it to thank Lisa for her time with us.

Again Carlos came from Germany for almost two weeks to volunteer and staying with Giuseppe . He did a great work alongside David and Karla when we went to Siculiana to a First wave camp, here the refugees stay for only two days before being transferred to a permanent camp. We are pleased when some volunteer come to help us and share their faith with the Sicilians and also with the refugees. At this camp also we were able to share the Word with a contingent of police force and Army personnel .

We try to give some sightseeing also, and this time we went to Erice , a very old Greek settlement, now a tourist attraction . Giuseppe was asked to help also in another bible study in Mazara del Vallo , 15. Miles away, there a group of 15 young Africans gather to study God's Word. It was a pleasant surprise to see them eager to study the Word.

Continue to pray for the ministry of Act Now Ministries in Sicily and beyond , we can do it with your help. We count a privilege to represent you to the ones that need to hear the Gospel.

Thank you for your continued support .
God bless you.

Let's go fishing (really) for souls
