Greetings to you from Rainy Sicily!

Greetings to you all from rainy Sicily. Giuseppe made it back to Sicily; it was a long flight and it is rainy and cold there. Last Sunday, prior to leaving, Giuseppe was scheduled to preach at Bloomfield Hills Baptist Church, but an ice storm had other plans and cancelled service for the day due to loss of power, about a half million people were without power for almost a week, Giuseppe owes a sermon to Bloomfield Hills Baptist Church when he returns to Michigan!

He had a great time with family and friends in Michigan and now it is time to take care of business. Mt. Etna is covered with lots of snow as you can see from the photo. We ask you to pray earnestly for housing for Giuseppe and the office for the mission. Also in the coming days, he will file papers with the authorities to be recognized as a non-profit organization in Italy (which will open the opportunity for greater resources in working with the cities).

Pray for several projects shaping up where Giuseppe is temporarily residing, to include establishing a new church, discipling new believers, and training believers for evangelism. It seems repetitive but we need to pray that we might do His will in our lives and be beacons of light wherever we are. We are in the midst of seeing growth in the ministry by future partnership with another organization. More details to come. God is at work and we are privileged to obey His call in our lives.

We thank you for your love and support and pray His blessing upon you every time you come to our mind.

God bless you richly,
As always: Let's go fishing (really) for one more for the One.
Serving together,
Giuseppe and Pennie Collesano,
President of Act Now Ministries
Ciao for now.
