Greetings from cold Michigan! (currently high of 35 and low of 21!)

We hope you had a blessed Thanksgiving with your families and friends; we did. God is good, He allowed Giuseppe to come home to spend Thanksgiving with his family for the first time in many years. Wow, November was a blessed and busy month. We wish you could have been there and had firsthand experience in God intervening and protecting. What does that mean?

There was a planned trip for two weeks of teaching and preaching for North Italy. With a detour, the trip should have gone from October 25 through November 6. God intervened; the schedule was changed because the churches had their schedule changed and filled. Giuseppe's trip started on November 4 and went through the 18th. Prior to departing to North Italy, a severe weather storm battered Sicily and caused major flooding throughout the cities (it had been two years of drought).

The exact place where I was supposed to stay for three days (God protected) suffered a catastrophic flash flood where I would have lost my car and more than $2000 worth of literature. Our brother Daniel lost his car, and others (25) had their cars totaled as well as they were parked in a subterranean garage. Daniel lost all the literature along with some that Giuseppe had shipped months before to Daniel. Your prayers made it happen (purchasing of literature).

You should have been there to see Daniel and his wife when we gave them triple of what they lost in the flood. God is good. We visited the area around them and Giuseppe was able to share the gospel with Maria Grazia, the manager of the BNB where he stayed. God is good.

More than half a million people and no Christian witness in this northern area. Also, Daniel, shared the possible opportunity of helping provide water, by digging a well, in a village in Kenya. We seek the leading of God for this, be in prayer.

Then we took a six-hour ride northeast by Mont Blanc, near the Alps. There, Giuseppe taught on Spiritual Warfare for three days, attendance was in person and some via Zoom (love technology) finishing the following Sunday. Then there were two more stops before reaching Pieve di Soligo (just North of Venice), where we have established a partnership with the local church. In Monza (just North of Milan) the first stop, we gave literature to local churches who outreach to residents and the local Muslim community. Then we went to Pavia (South of Milan) where our brother Elia is preparing to go to a Muslim country to evangelize. We gave him Arabic literature so he can share it with the ones he encounters. In Pieve di Soligo, we also taught on Spiritual Warfare and shared the gospel with many people.

Literature for Elia going to a Muslim country to share the gospel.

Please pray for Sandro, the owner of the BNB where Giuseppe stayed (Pieve di Soligo), we were able to share the Word with him. God is truly good. Why? In both BNB's, we could not pay a dime. God blessed Giuseppe by providing payment from a couple of Italian believers to take care of his lodging. His word says, He will provide and give good gifts (Matthew 7:11). Wow. Blessing upon blessing. Another blessing is the eagerness from the churches to have him back again to preach and teach. Pray for this, We Can Do It Together.

The return trip was eventful; after 13 hours' of driving and arriving in Reggio Calabria at the ferry which traverses the strait of Sicily, an entire family heard the gospel. What I thought would be a couple of minutes of conversation, turned into a half hour of sharing on the bridge of the ferry with Michael. They were going to Sicily for only a day, a birthday, and it was God's day. Pray for Michael and his family. They all received a New Testament and the kids got the children's coloring book Bible.

Tired? If you ask Giuseppe, no; maybe physically, but the reward to be able to share The Good News: priceless. Because you are praying. Because God is Good and desires that no one goes to hell, but be saved, hell was created for the devil and the angels who disobeyed God, not for man. Our privilege is to bring one more into the Kingdom and We Can Do It.

As the holiday season approaches, and we prepare for the celebration of the birth of our Savior, we would like to wish all of you a very Merry CHRISTmas and a Happy New Year. There is no better gift than knowing you are praying, you give, and you support all of us at Act Now Ministries, souls are reached with His Saving Gospel. Thank you.

Serving together,
Giuseppe and Pennie Collesano

As always:
Let's go fishing (really) for one more for The One.
Ciao for now.
