Happy New Year from Italy

Happy New Year to you all. We trust you had a joyful time welcoming in the new year. As we reflect on God's faithfulness and look ahead to what He will do, we are filled with gratitude. The Lord continues to allow us the privilege of serving throughout Italy, and we thank Him—and you—for what He has done and for what He will do in the year ahead.

ANM remains committed to a simple mission: reaching one more for the One.

Encouragement Along the Way

During the trip north, even on the highway, we found encouragement by a truck. Yes, a trucker had painted on the back door John 14:6. A reminder for each one of His servants that He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

There are still so many villages and municipalities without a Christian witness along the way. But there are plenty of bell towers, high enough to be seen for miles, and even a monument to a saint on a crossroad. You would think that you were in a Christian country; far from it, sadly.

The Laborers Are Few

There is still much need for laborers, especially in the north. As we wrote last time, now we have a couple that is coming along with ANM in the province of Bologna, about 1,000 miles from Sicily.

Daniel and Annamaria are serving in the surrounding places around Bologna, a city of about 400,000 people.

The surrounding area is basically untouched by the gospel. Daniele is actively sharing the gospel there. Last May, Giuseppe had the opportunity to provide him with more literature and went along sharing the gospel with Daniel. God willing, this will be repeated again this spring. God is good in allowing us open doors to minister not only in Sicily but in many parts of the country with your help.

YOUR INVOLVEMENT

Everybody likes an espresso coffee or a cappuccino. It was in one of these occasions that the Lord prompted Giuseppe to share His Word with Chiara, a waitress. It was a pleasant surprise to see how His Word can penetrate a hungry heart. Praise the Lord. Chiara not only listened with attention but with expectation too -- that expectation that comes through faith.

She received a Bible and literature to begin her walk with the Lord. We are praying for her conversion to the true redeemer and Savior Jesus Christ. Pray along with us that the seed planted in many during this trip will take root and bring glory to our God.

This year marks our 21st year in Sicily/Italy serving together for the sharing of His Word; we are thankful beyond our expectations. We also continue to pray for you and your families' blessings in this new year. We are grateful to have such a partnership with the desire to reach even lands far away. Thank you.

Yours in Christ, Giuseppe and Pennie Collesano Ciao for Now!
